

Use correct digital spaces, login details, and report device issues.

Admit mistakes, ask for help, and use ethical online practices.

Acknowledge others' work and respect personal information.

Be patient, persistent, and embrace learning challenges.

Keep trying and support others in learning new skills.

Embrace change, and look for ways to improve your skills

Help classmates and use kind words online.

Be an upstander, not a bystander, in digital spaces.

Look after your body, take regular breaks

Be ready to learn with technology

Save your work regularly and store it appropriately

Securely store your login details

Recognise we have different skill levels and practice to improve.

Engage with age-appropriate content and online interactions.

Understand others may have differing viewpoints online.

Handle devices with care at all times

Respect other's work, devices and intellectual property

Respect that others have differing viewpoints online

HONOUR-ONLINE